CERTIFICATE III
IN HOSPITALITY

SIT30616

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Certificate III in Hospitality provides entry level candidates and experienced front of house personnel knowledge and skills specializing in front of house operations within a service industry venue. It reflects the roles of individuals who have a range of hospitality skills in food and beverage service. Using discretion and judgement, they work with some independence and under limited supervision using plans, and policies and procedures to guide work activities.

This qualification provides students with the foundation skills and knowledge to be an effective team member within their chosen hospitality career.

CAREER PATHWAY OPTIONS

Upon successfully completing this qualification, individuals have a pathway to work in any hospitality industry sector as a food and beverage attendant. The diversity of employers includes restaurants, hotels, motels, catering operations, clubs, pubs, cafes and coffee shops. This qualification also allows for multiskilling and specialization within the industry. Career progression can also be enhanced by enrolling in the Diploma or Advanced Diploma of Hospitality Management courses see <http://training.gov.au> for further information and the list of institutions offering these courses.

Possible job roles upon graduating the Certificate III in Hospitality include:

- Food and beverage attendant
- Espresso coffee machine operator
- Senior bar attendant
- Restaurant host
- Function attendant
- Waiter
- Guest service agent

If you have the passion to provide exceptional customer service, have an eye for detail, the drive to lead by example and the motivation to work in a strong and committed team then this qualification will give you the opportunity for a career that is both challenging and rewarding.
